ALÈGRE

Alègre is not a Mike Bongiorno quote, but rather a bright and light-hearted, light and fresh wine that gladdens summer dinners with a breeze of intense floral aromas.

Year 2022

Classification D.O.C. Sicilia Grillo

Tasting notes Intense citrus notes accompanied by a bouquet of yellow flowers, bright, fresh and with great petite character.

Pairings As an aperitif and accompaniment to typical fish dishes, intense and persistent yellow flower aromas.

Alègre is the only one for which I chose not to use a bust but a detail of the hand holding and welcoming Mediterranean flowers.

ALLUCCÀ

Alluccà means 'Here it is!', exactly the same thing you will say after searching far and wide for Sicily in a glass and finding it here, in a concentration of bubbles and lemon aromas.

Year 2022

Classification I.G.P. Terre Siciliane Moscato
Frizzante metodo ancestrale

Tasting notes Aromatic bouquet of citrus, lemon and grapefruit diluted with floral notes.

Pairings As an aperitif to accompany fritters, mature cheeses and charcuterie platters, and with seafood.

Alluccà is a hymn to Sicilianity and freshness, the yellow is bursting and sparkling.

MOSCÀ

Moscà, where you put it. It is a 100% Moscato Bianco and, despite being aged for six months in steel, its heart is supple and its aromatic bouquet with hints of flowers, musk, peach and sage is well suited to aperitifs, fish, cheese and fried food.

Year 2022

Classification D.O.C. Sicilia moscato fermo

Tasting notes Persistent aromatic notes of yellow flowers, great balance between acidity and minerality.

Pairings Goes well with structured fish dishes and white meats.

LUIGIA

Luigia is proof that a rosé should never be taken lightly. Always true to itself and its own nature, its character is unique, just like its strong ruby colour, obtained after only two hours in contact with the skins.

Year	2022
Classification	D.O.C. Sicilia Rosato da Nero d'Avola
Tasting notes	Fresh, savoury and beautifully harmonious with hints of berries just hinted at.
Pairings	Eggs and savoury pies, fish soups, omelettes and stewed white meats.

Luigia has a determined gaze that scans the horizon with amber-coloured streams warming its tones.

SERGIO

It is the real Barone, the one that inspires awe at first glance, and depth at first sip. When you taste its spicy liquorice notes and cherry aromas, we are sure you will appreciate its immediate personality.

Year 2021

Classification D.O.C. Eoro Nero d'Avola

Tasting notes Typical hints of fruit, black cherry and plum mixed with citrus, carob and liquorice.

Pairings First courses of game meat, second courses of red meat and fruit salad accompanied by dark chocolate.

In Sergio, on the other hand, it is the vineyard that focuses the gaze at the expense of the face that becomes a vase.

LE MANDRIE

The meeting of three strong and different personalities such as Lucignola, Perricone and Nero d'Avola aged for a long time in wood would lead one to think of a complex and over-structured wine, but as you sip it, you will be struck by an enviable harmony of red fruits and balance.

Year	2020
Classification	D.O.C. Sicilia Rosso da uve autoctone
Tasting notes	Typical hints of ripe berries, cherries and plums accompanied by an elegant minerality and freshness.
Pairings	Traditional regional dishes, red meat dishes, cheeses and stewed fish.
